GENERAL ELECTION REMINDERS AS ELECTION DAY NEARS Residents Can Follow Ballot Count for Three Council Seats on Glendale 11 & City Website

Glendale, Ariz. – Glendale's General Election will be held next Tuesday, Nov. 4, and polling sites will be open from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m. across the city. View a full list of all polling locations in Glendale.

Through election night, the city will provide continuous results on both Glendale 11 TV and on Glendale's website. Residents can tune in to Glendale 11 TV to see updated results from the Maricopa County Elections Department or visit the city website for the up-to-date results.

Voters with early ballots are reminded that for their vote to count in the General Election, the ballot must be in hand of election officials by 7 p.m. on Election Day. If voters have not mailed their ballot before the Tuesday election, they can turn the ballot in to the Maricopa County Elections Office or bring the ballot to their local polling site on Election Day.

Glendale's General Election includes city council seats in the Barrel, Cholla and Ocotillo districts. Coverage of election results will begin on Glendale 11 TV and on the Glendale website after the polls close at 7 p.m. Results will be updated through the night.

Election questions can also be answered by the Maricopa County Elections Department at (602) 506-1511. The Glendale City Clerk's Office can be reached at (623) 930-2252.
